CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This Association shall be known as the " Providence Athletic Association."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of this Association shall be the promotion of sound physical culture, the encouragement and enjoyment of athletic sports and pastimes, the development of social intercourse, and other similar purposes.

ARTICLE III.

The membership of this Association shall be limited to such number, not exceeding two thousand active members and such other non-resident members, as the Governing Committee may from time to time determine. No person shall be eligible to membership who is under eighteen years of age at the time of his election.

None but active or life members shall be entitled to vote or be eligible to office.

Termination of active or life membership, from any cause whatsoever, shall operate as a release of all right or title to, or interest in, the property and assets of the Association.

Persons under eighteen years of age, or persons temporarily residing in Providence or vicinity, and ladies, may be admitted to privileges of the Association, under such rules and regulations as the Governing Committee may prescribe.

ARTICLE IV.

The Annual Meeting shall be held on the second Monday of April, for the election of members of a Governing Committee and such other business as may be brought before it.

If no quorum is present, the presiding officer may adjourn the meeting to any other day within two weeks, with the same effect as if held as above.

None but members shall be present at a meeting.

Fifty active members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

At the Annual Meeting the order of business shall be as follows:

Notices of each Annual Meeting of the Association and notices of each adjourned meeting or special meeting shall be mailed to each member at least five days before the meeting.

ARTICLE V.

GOVERNMENT.

The entire government and management of the Association, the making of contracts and the execution of instruments, except for the conveyance of real estate, shall be entrusted to a Governing Committee of twenty of its active members, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum, and from whom the President, the Vice-Presidents, the Secretary and the Treasurer shall be chosen.

This Committee shall be divided into four classes, of five each, to serve for four years each, one class retiring every year when the Association shall elect the successors.

The Committee shall, at a meeting to be held as soon after the Annual Meeting as possible, elect from its own body a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall be the officers of the Association, all to serve for one year from the second Monday in April, or until their successors are elected.

The Treasurer shall be required to furnish a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with surety to be approved by the Governing Committee.

In case of any vacancy occurring during the year, the Committee shall fill it for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Any member of the Committee who shall absent himself from three consecutive regular meetings, unless he shall have previously obtained permission so to do, or shall present at the next regular meeting an excuse for his absence satisfactory to a majority of the Committee present, shall be considered as having resigned as a member of the Committee, and shall cease to be a member thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

The Governing Committee shall have power,—

1. To appoint the necessary sub-committees.

2. To admit members, one adverse ballot in five excluding, and to suspend or expel them by ballot, subject to the provisions of Article XX.

3. To prescribe rules for the admission of strangers or guests to the privileges of the Association, and no persons not members shall be admitted, except under such rules.

4. To make rules for the use of the Association property by the members, and for their conduct in the Association, including all necessary House Rules.

5. To fix penalties for the violation of the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules, and to enforce the same.

6. To remit penalties for offences against the By-Laws and Rules, and for accidental violations of the Constitution.

7. To suspend any member, and to put an end to membership for any conduct of a member, not in violation of the Constitution, By-Laws or Rules, but improper and prejudicial to the interests of the Association, subject to the provisions of Article XX.

8. To call special meetings of the Association to consider a specific subject.

9. To make, alter and amend rules for their own government, and to fix and enforce penalties for the violation of such rules.

10. To make purchases and contracts for the ordinary expenses of the Association; but it shall have no power, unless specially authorized, to render the Association or any member thereof liable for any extraordinary debt or expenses beyond the amount of money which shall, at the time of contracting such debt, be in the treasury and not needed for the discharge of any prior debt or liabilities.

11. To appoint delegates to the different associations of which the Association may be a member.

12. No entry in the name of the Association shall be made in any contest unless approved by the Governing Committee, who may, however, delegate their authority to any subcommittee.

ARTICLE VII.

CORPORATE SEAL.

The corporate seal of the Association shall bear the inscription:

"Providence Athletic Association, State of Rhode Island. Incorporated May 1, 1891."

ARTICLE VIII.

MEETINGS OF THE GOVERNING COMMITTEE.

The Governing Committee shall hold monthly meetings, except in the months of July, August and September; special meetings shall be called by the Secretary, at the request of the President or any five of the Governing Committee, upon notice to be sent or given to each member at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed therefor.

In no case, when a resolution has been passed at a meeting of the Committee affecting the relation of a member of the Association towards the Association, shall such resolution be received or rescinded at a subsequent meeting, unless notice in writing be sent by the Secretary to each member of the Governing Committee at least ten days before the meeting, that such previous action will be brought up for review or reconsideration.

ARTICLE IX.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

At the Annual Meeting, the Governing Committee, through the President, shall make a full report of its proceedings during the previous year, and recommend such measures as it may deem advisable.

ARTICLE X.

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF THE GOVERNING COMMITTEE.

The Governing Committee at its February meeting shall annually appoint a Nominating Committee of five members of the Association, not members of the Governing Committee, for the nomination of members of the Governing Committee to be balloted for at the ensuing annual election. It shall be the duty of the Nominating Committee appointed as aforesaid to post the names of the persons nominated by them for membership of the Governing Committee in a conspicuous place in the Club House at least twenty days before the Annual Election; but any other member shall be eligible for the election to the Governing Committee, if his name shall have been posted in such conspicuous place for at least ten days before such election, endorsed by ten members of the Association. At such meeting the presiding officer shall appoint two tellers, who shall receive and canvass the ballots cast at the Annual Election and certify the result. The election to membership of the Governing Committee shall be by ballot, and a plurality of all the votes cast shall be necessary to the election of a member.

ARTICLE XI.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

A candidate for admission must be proposed by two active members, who shall certify, in writing, that they have known him for six months at least. The application, dated, stating full name, residence and place of business of the candidate, signed by the members proposing and seconding him, with such reference and remarks as they may choose to make, shall be given to the Secretary, who shall post the names in the Club House at least two weeks before the meeting of the Governing Committee at which the said candidate comes up for election.

A second ballot upon the election of a proposed member may be taken at any time before the adjournment of the meeting, upon the motion of a single member of the Committee; but after the meeting a rejected candidate shall not within three months be again balloted for. Candidates whose names have been laid over for two successive meetings shall not again be balloted for until after the names succeeding them on the list shall have been acted upon. Precedence shall be given to old members who may present their names for re-election, and also to those who have already established a record as athletes.

ARTICLE XII.

ACTIVE MEMBERS.

Any person duly elected and paying his entrance fee and dues for the unexpired portion of the half-year during which he joins, counting from the first day of the month in which he was elected, shall become thenceforth entitled to all rights and privileges of active membership. Failure to make these payments within sixty days shall render such election null and void ; and these payments will be held as an acceptance of membership, and a submission to and agreement to be bound by the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of the Association.

All members must immediately notify the Secretary of any change in address, and by failure to do so shall be deemed to have waived any notice provided for under the Constitution, By-Laws, and any rules, and shall incur all the risks that attach thereto.

ARTICLE XIII.

NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS.

Persons having no usual place of residence, business or study in the State of Rhode Island may be elected non-resident members, in the manner provided for the election of active members, and shall upon election pay each ten dollars entrance fee and fifteen dollars annual dues, in the manner prescribed for such payments by active members.

Non-resident members shall have all the rights of active members except those of voting, holding office or having any interest in the property of the Association.

A non-resident member who shall acquire a usual place of residence, business or study in the State of Rhode Island, shall cease to be a non-resident member of the Association, and shall notify the Secretary of such change.

He shall, however, if he so request, be placed at the head of the list of candidates for election as active members, and if elected, shall pay an additional entrance fee equal to the balance of the then entrance fee and his regular dues as an active member.

The Governing Committee may, on the application of any active member having no usual place of residence, business or study in the State of Rhode Island, place him in the class of non-residents, his privilege to begin on the first day of April or October next succeeding the date of his application; but no return shall be made of the entrance fee already paid, and in the event of his subsequently acquiring a usual place of residence, business or study in the State of Rhode Island, he shall notify the Secretary of such change, and shall be placed in the class of active members without the necessity of a re-election.

ARTICLE XIV.

ARMY, NAVY AND MARINE HOSPITAL SERVICE MEMBERS.

Any officer of the Army, Navy or Marine Hospital Service of the United States may be admitted to the privileges of the Association, at the discretion of the Governing Committee, upon the payment of such proportion of the annual dues as shall correspond to the time during which he shall enjoy the privileges of the Association, but he shall not have the right of voting, and, in the event of the dissolution of the Association, he shall have no interest in its property.

ARTICLE XV.

HONORARY AND LIFE MEMBERS.

Honorary membership may be conferred by a unanimous vote, at any meeting of the Association, upon any person, the candidate having been proposed as required for active membership.

Honorary members cannot, as such, hold office or vote at meetings, or hold any right, title to, or interest in the property or assets of the Association, but may enjoy all the rights and privileges of active membership by payment of entrance fee (if not paid before, while active members) and dues from the date of their applications to become active members.

Life members may be elected by the Governing Committee in the same manner as active members, upon the payment of two hundred and fifty dollars each, in addition to the active member's entrance fee (if not already paid), and they shall be entitled to all the privileges of active members and shall pay no dues or assessments.

ARTICLE XVI.

INDEBTEDNESS.

All indebtedness of members to the Association, except semi-annual dues, shall be paid on or before the first day of every month ; and a notice of the indebtedness of a member, with a request to pay the same, shall be sent to the member's usual address. If, at the expiration of the tenth day of any month, any member shall not have paid such indebtedness to the Association for the preceding month, he shall receive no further credit until such indebtedness is paid. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer, upon the eleventh day of each month, to post on the bulletin board of the Association the names of all members whose indebtedness is unpaid, together with the amount due from each member, there to remain until the same is paid. Any member whose name and the amount due from him, having been posted as aforesaid, shall have remained posted thirty days, shall cease to be a member of the Association, subject to Article VI., section 6.

ARTICLE XVII.

ENTRANCE FEE AND ANNUAL DUES OF ACTIVE MEMBERS.

To defray the expenses of the Association, there shall be an entrance fee of twenty-five dollars each for the first thousand active members, the entrance fees of active members beyond the first thousand to be fixed by the Governing Committee, and annual dues of twenty-five dollars each, payable semi-annually, in advance, on the first day of April and the first day of October; but any member who so desires can pay the whole annual assessment, in advance, on the first day of April.

Any member failing to pay his dues within thirty days after they become due shall be posted upon the Association bulletin, and notice thereof shall be mailed to his usual address by the Treasurer; and upon failing to pay within two months after they become due, he shall cease to be a member of the Association, subject to the provisions of Article VI., section 6.

Persons having thus been dropped, and wishing again to become members, must be regularly proposed and balloted for, as when first elected.

Any member in arrears to the Association shall be excluded from all competitions, unless by special permission of the Governing Committee.

The Secretary and the Treasurer shall be exempt from the payment of all dues.

ARTICLE XVIII.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Leave of absence may be granted for one year, to any member of the Association, by the Governing Committee. Applications for such leave must be made in writing, addressed to the Secretary. No leave of absence shall be granted except in case of absence at least from the State of Rhode Island during the term of such leave of absence; no member shall be granted leave of absence unless his dues be paid in full to the date of the receipt of his application; no member shall be liable for yearly dues during the term of his leave of absence. At the expiration of the year the Governing Committee may extend the leave of absence for another year.

ARTICLE XIX.

RESIGNATIONS.

All resignations of membership or office shall be made in writing, to the President or Secretary, and shall be acted upon at the next meeting of the Governing Committee.

Resignations of membership made subsequent to April 1 and October 1 shall not relieve the resigning member from dues for the half-year beginning on those dates.

ARTICLE XX.

EXPULSIONS OR SUSPENSIONS.

If any member shall be charged, in writing, addressed to the Governing Committee, by any other member, with conduct injurious to the good order, peace or interest of the Association, or at variance with the requirements of its Constitution, By-Laws and Rules, or if the Committee shall become cognizant of such conduct, the Committee shall thereupon inform the member charged, in writing; and if upon inquiry, and after giving the person so charged an opportunity to be heard, the Governing Committee shall be satisfied of the truth of the charge, and that the same demands such action, they may proceed to suspend such member for a period not exceeding six months or they may request him to resign, and if he declines to resign, upon notice to him after presentation of the case, may proceed to expel him. A three-fifths vote of those present of the Governing Committee shall be required for expelling or suspending a member.

At any time within ninety days after any suspension or expulsion, a meeting of the Association shall be called, if requested, in writing, by fifty members of the Association, addressed to the Secretary, at which meeting an appeal may be taken from the decision of the Committee, and the member may be restored to his position by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Association present and voting.

ARTICLE XXI.

AMENDMENTS.

A quorum for the amendment of this Constitution shall consist of not less than one hundred members; and when such quorum is present, this Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any annual or special meeting, provided the proposed amendment has been posted in the Club House and mailed to each member of the Association, directed to the last address furnished by him, at least five days before the meeting at which the amendment is to be considered.

6. The Committee on Athletic Grounds shall have general charge of the athletic grounds and bulldings, the employes attached thereto, and the supplies therefor and all contests and exhibitions thereon.

No bill for any supplies, repairs, alteration or other expense shall be incurred by any of the other committees until the same shall have been approved by the Finance Committee, after a requisition shall have been made in writing by the committee desiring the same, or the chairman thereof; except that the House Committee shall purchase or direct the purchase, from time to time, of the necessary supplies, wines, liquors and cigars, and any committee may make any moderate purchase or incur any moderate expense for anything of immediate necessity, all such purchases or expenses to be reported to the Finance Committee prior to or at a regular monthly meeting of the Finance Committee. The Secretary and the Treasurer may incur all necessary current expenses, without previous requisition, and the Treasurer shall report all such expenses to the regular monthly meeting of the Finance Committee. The salaries of all employes shall be fixed by the Governing Committee.

The Finance Committee shall hold such regular meeting once a month prior to the regular monthly meeting of the Governing Committee, to which it shall report; and the doings of each other committee shall be reported to the Governing Committee at the regular monthly meeting, upon request. The Governing Committee shall have power to decide any question of the jurisdiction or the duties and powers of the various committees.

II. INDEBTEDNESS TO THE ASSOCIATION.

When any member's indebtedness to the Association, exclusive of semi-annual dues, amounts to fifteen ($15) dollars, he shall not be allowed further credit until such indebtedness shall have been paid in full, notice to be sent to such member immediately. The House Committee may at any time suspend the credit of any member, giving him notice in writing.

A bill of each member's monthly account, through the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, shall be mailed by the Treasurer to each member not later than the last day of each month.

III. PRIVATE PROPERTY.

No member shall use the private property of another member without his permission. All private property shall be at the owner's risk.

A coat room is provided for the checking of valuables, but the Association will not be responsible for any loss.

IV. ASSOCIATION PROPERTY.

V. VISITORS AND STRANGERS.

None but members and persons introduced as hereinafter provided shall be admitted to the Club House; except that the Governing Committee also regulates any admission under Article III. of the Constitution. Other persons having business with members can send in their names and await the person they wish to see in the stranger's reception room.

VI. VISITORS.

Any gentleman may be admitted as a visitor to the Club House, but he shall not be introduced by the same member oftener than once in thirty (30) days; he must be accompanied by a member, who shall register his name, residence and date of introduction in the Visitors Book and affix his own name. A visitor cannot use the gymnasium or baths, and he shall not pay cash or settle for anything furnished by the Association, but shall in all respects be considered the guest of the member introducing him.

VII. STRANGERS.

Strangers are persons not having a usual place of residence, business or study in the State of Rhode Island.

A stranger may, on the request of a member, receive at the office, in the name of the Governing Committee, a written invitation entitling him to all the privileges of the Club House for not more than two (2) weeks, which at the expiration of that time may be renewed by any member of the House Committee for a period of not more than two (2) weeks additional, in each three (3) months.

The name of such stranger shall also be registered in the Strangers Book; the member introducing him shall affix his own name.

The same person shall not be introduced as a stranger for more than four (4) weeks in all in each three (3) months; but he may be admitted as a visitor according to the rules prescribed for visitors.

Members introducing visitors and strangers are responsible for them.

Any visitor or stranger violating any of the rules of the Association may be notified by a member of the House Committee that he can no longer enjoy the privileges of the Association.

Other persons, under eighteen (18) years of age, shall not be admitted to any part of the Club House, except in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Governing Committee.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS.

All members in good standing will be furnished with membership cards. These cards shall be good for admission (except in cases of special arrangements) to all Association entertainments and must be shown when called for. Any transfer whatever of any member's card shall be sufficient cause for expulsion.

The privileges of the Club House, in the discretion of the proper standing committee, may be extended to crews, or members of other clubs while training, or to competitors from other places; and the privileges of the dressing rooms and baths may be given to those practicing with or coaching a team or crew.

Any damage to the Association property done by any child must be made good by the member who introduces him, and will be charged to the member's account. Children holding such cards will be under the strict charge of the Club House attendants, and subject to the rules of government of the Association. Misconduct will render the offender liable to be dismissed peremptorily from the Club House, and repeated offences will subject him to be denied these privileges of the Association.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS.

Special rules for the Gymnasium will be posted therein.

Special rules for Shooting Gallery will be posted therein.

All cards issued bring their holders within the rules for government of the Association.

No one except a member of the Governing Committee, the superintendent or the clerks in the offices will be allowed in the offices of the Association without the consent of a member of the Governing Committee present.

No reprimand shall be given to employes or servants by members of the Association; but complaints of any nature shall be made in writing, signed by the complaining member or members, addressed to the proper committee, and deposited in a box provided for that purpose in the office of the Association.

No member or visitor shall give any money or gratuity to any servant of the Association.

Members shall not be allowed to send a servant out of the Club House on any pretext.

No dogs will be allowed in the Club House.

No subscription paper or petition can be circulated, no paper or magazine can be supplied nor any article exposed for sale in the Club House without permission of the House Committee.

No periodicals, newspapers or books shall be removed from the reading rooms or parlors, or be cut, marked or otherwise defaced.

No smoking will be allowed in the Gymnasium, Swimming Pool or Ladies' Departments.

No edibles or beverages will be served in the fencing and boxing rooms, gymnasium, locker rooms or swimming pool. Beverages, sandwiches, crackers and cheese may be served elsewhere in the Club House, but the regular menu will be served only in the dining rooms.

Conversation is prohibited in the reading rooms, and except between players in the card rooms.

No game of cards will be allowed except in the card rooms (See Special Rules). Gambling or playing for money is prohibited.

No more than three consecutive strings of billiards and bowls or forty-five minutes of pool shall be played by the same person after others have requested the use of the table or alley.

A transient lodging room cannot be occupied by the same member more than four consecutive nights, if its use be requested by another member before 9 o'clock P. M., no other room being vacant.

Members in undress or exercising clothes are not allowed in the social rooms.

The superintendent is required to notify members of any violation of the rules of the House, and report the same to the House Committee.

Ungentlemanly conduct or violation of the Constitution, By-Laws or House Rules will subject a member to a fine of not exceeding $20, or to suspension or expulsion under the provisions of the Constitution.

The Governing Committee or House Committee may vary these House Rules and make special arrangements only upon special occasions. These House Rules may be amended or added to by a vote of two-thirds of those of the Governing Committee present, provided five days notice in writing of the proposed amendment or addition shall be given to each member of the Governing Committee.
